Governor of the State of Texas

 REPRODUCED FROM THE HOLDINGS OF THE
TEXAS STATE ARCHIVES

ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

May 31, 1935.

WHEREAS, H. B. No. 812,

"An Act relating to the duties of the County Board of Trustees of public schools of this State, in all counties having an area of not more than one thousand and seventy (1,070) square miles and not less than one thousand and sixty (1,060) square miles, and a population of not less than sixty thousand (60,000) and not more than sixty-one thousand (61,000), according to the last Federal Census, authorizing them to condemn land for school purposes; to subdivide their respective counties into convenient school districts; to increase or reduce the area of independent and common school districts; create additional districts; consolidate two (2) or more adjacent districts; subdivide any districts; revise or rearrange the boundaries of any district; attach territory thereto or detach territory therefrom and to adjust the district properties and bonded indebtedness against such districts and detached or added territory upon a just and equitable basis; providing a method of apportioning school funds to the respective districts and providing for the election of the County Board of School Trustees; providing other matters and things necessary and incidental to the main purpose and subject to this Act, whether mentioned in detail in this caption or not; and repealing all laws, general or special, in conflict therewith, and declaring an emergency,"

was duly passed by the Regular Session of the 44th Legislature, and is now before me, as Governor, for approval or veto; and

WHEREAS, said bill is unconstitutional in that it is in contravention of Section 58 of Article 3 of the Constitution of Texas.

NOW, therefore, I, James V. Allred, Governor of the State of Texas, by virtue of the authority vested in me under the Constitution and laws of this State, do hereby veto and disapprove said bill in all things.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I

Have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the Seal of State to be impressed hereon at Austin, this the 31st day of May,

A. D. 1935.
